

NOMINATION RETURNING OFFICER BULLETIN: TIE VOTES

In the event of a tie in a two person race, the RO draws lots.

In the event of a tie on the final ballot of a preferential ballot race, the candidate with the most first choice votes on the first ballot wins. If that is also tied, the RO draws lots.

In the event of a tie in an earlier round of a preferential ballot, the candidate with the most first choice votes on the first ballot proceeds to the next round. If that is also tied, the RO draws lots.

In the event of a tie in the first round of a preferential ballot, the RO draws lots.